

Espresso Essential sign on as sponsor of Tweed Heads Seagulls Rugby League Football Club

Gold Coast, 16 December, 2015: Espresso Essential, a national coffee supplier, has signed a 3 year sponsorship agreement with the Tweed Heads Seagulls RLFC.

Espresso Essential is one of the flagship brands of the Essential Brands Group and has been supplying coffee and coffee machines since launching on the Gold Coast in 2001, where its International Headquarters are still located.

In future you will see the Espresso Essential logo featured on the sleeve of the Seagulls jersey, apparels, and sports grounds live on national television for the next three years.

Shaun McRae, CEO of Tweed Heads Seagulls RLFC, says "We are delighted to be forming a relationship with Espresso Essential." He comments, "Our company's values align perfectly, and having the support of a homegrown enterprise such as ourselves, is very exciting and we are looking forward to a successful season with the support of Espresso Essential."

"I welcome Tweed Heads Seagulls RLFC to the Essential Brands Group family and look forward to a successful and enduring relationship," commented Todd Hiscock, CEO of Essential Brands Group. "It is a natural fit with our 'healthy body, healthy mind' philosophy, supporting grass roots health and community sports organisations."
